Taber Municipal Police Commission Report

May 2019

The report is broken into our three functions of police, dispatch and the Community Standards Unit, followed by a section on budget, police complaints, crime analyses, etc., strategic planning, and other. In each of these functions there is information for you. Some of the slots may be empty, but next month perhaps not.

Police

Community Involvement:

- Taber Police Service employees participated in serving the Clearview Lodge residents' lunch in early June.
- Chief Abela opened Senior Week at the Clearview Lodge by providing remarks and cutting cake.
- Cst. Nedokus hosted the bike rodeo in Taber. Approximately 260 Taber youth participated in safe bicycling training.
- Sr. Cst. Champagne was involved in the Law Enforcement Torch Run to Edmonton.
- Cst. Nguyen participated in the Spartan Race in Montana with Ace Place School.
- Bylaw Officer Klassen provided a speech to the graduating class of the Taber Mennonite School. Below was his message:

On June 7, 2019, I gave a speech at the Taber Mennonite School graduation. I was asked to speak about what I wish I had done differently during my time in high school. I talked to them about how I wish I had taken my education more seriously, that I had studied more, that I had paid more attention in class, that I had respected my teachers and peers more, and that I had a better mindset going through high school. The goal of this speech was to motivate the current graduates to pursue further education and to keep an open mind. It was also to motivate students currently in high school to always try their hardest and to be the best version of themselves. Another key goal was to show parents that education is important and that their kids can achieve anything they put their mind to. As a former graduate of Taber Mennonite School, I was honored to give this speech and show my success in furthering my education by attending the Lethbridge College and by working for the Taber Police Service as a bylaw officer. I am also honored to have represented the Taber Police Service by wearing my bylaw uniform while I gave this speech.

Training:

- All members undertook pistol requalification this month and successfully passed.
- Family Violence training was undertaken by Cst. Valgardson and Cst. Schneider in Lethbridge, hosted by Solicitor General.
- Sr. Cst. Evanson and Cst. Fudge attended the ISEP 300 level training hosted by the Medicine Hat Police Service.
- Sr. Cst. Johnson attended casualty care instructor training at the Lethbridge Police Service.
- Taber Police Service senior officers were involved in recruit assessments for the Lethbridge College Police Academy. (3 sessions)
- Taber Police use of force instructors were involved in training recruits for three sessions at the Police Academy.

Equipment:

- No new equipment was purchased this month.
- We are working on E ticketing with Sgt. Kehler taking the lead. The benefit to this technology is mostly found in the data entry portion with some police services indicating a 46-minute reduction in total officer/support time using E ticketing. This involved placing a scanner and a small printer in the car.
- Trees: Although not equipment, I thought I would advise you that we have been doing some grounds maintenance at the office regarding trees. For several reason, we have had to prune the coniferous trees in our front yard, and remove approximately 4 trees that died over the winter. Our plans are to work with the recreation department to plant deciduous trees to replace the ones that died.

Operational:

- As reported on our social media, TPS officers were involved in a pursuit and subsequent search warrant at a home in Taber. About a dozen charges were laid in totality and a loaded pistol was encountered during this investigation. Many thousands of dollars worth of stolen property was also recovered during this investigation. This is an example of criminality moving from the cities to smaller communities and the impact of regional criminality impacting our community.
- This summer members of the Blood Tribe Police Service and the Tsuu T'ina Police Service will be assisting the Taber Police Service with Cornfest. In kind, Taber Police Officers will be assisting the Blood Tribe Police Service with Indian Days and the Tsuu T'ina Police with the Tsuu T'ina Nation Pow Wow. This is an excellent way to share resources, and experience different policing opportunities and cultures from all agencies involved.

Personnel:

- We have received permission from Council to increase our police budget to accommodate the hiring of 2 more 5th class constables. We will be advertising for these positions in the very near future.

Policy:

- Sr. Cst. Evanson hosted and chaired a Provincial Standards meeting at the Taber Police Service with representatives from each agency in Alberta present. Sr. Cst. Evanson has been working hard to keep our standards documentation, policy, and proofs current. This is a major job and I commend him for looking after this work.

Monthly Report

Report for May, 2019

Community Standards Unit Monthly Report-May, 2019

As of May 2nd, 2019, the Community Standards Unit has gained two summer students who will be assisting the CSU as bylaw officers. Bylaw Officer Tiana Straga and Bylaw Officer Henry Klassen will be members of the CSU over the summer months until August 31, 2019.

During the month of May 2019, there were 45 Bylaw related calls for service. These 45 complaints included one barking dog complaint, six complaints of dogs running at large, eight weed/unsightly premises complaints, three waste disposal complaint, one driving complaint, one developmental permit concern, five calls of animal concerns and two requests to borrow skunk traps.

Of the dogs that were running at large, four were returned to their owners. Two owners were fined for their dogs running at large due to the dogs being at large in the past. The other two at large calls resulted in the dogs being gone upon the arrival of officers.

The one barking dog complaints were resolved by speaking to the owners of the dogs and suggesting remedies for the barking issue. No fines were issued.

All of the animal concerns were found to be negative for any violations occurring.

The three improper waste usage complaints were investigated and two notices were issued to remedy the situations. All waste has been cleaned up.

Seven notices were issued to various properties that were subject to weed/unsightly complaints. Four of the notices were not complied with and a contractor was sent in to complete the work.

The Community Standards Unit issued a total of eighty one notices in regards to unsightly premises'/weeds. All the notices were complied with but five. The five non-compliant properties have been since taken care of by our contractor, Pinnacle Plants and Contracting.

A total of two skunk traps were lent out. No animals were reported to have been trapped.

One dog was surrendered by its owner who could no longer care for the dog. The dog was placed in the Animal Control Facility where it will be placed up for adoption.

Five applications for dog fanciers permits were received by the Community Standards Unit. All five applications were reviewed and neighbourhood checks were completed. Permits were approved for all five submissions.

Four bikes were found. None of the bikes were reported as missing or stolen and have been placed in the bylaw compound to be held in the hopes of finding the owners.

If, however, mediation is not successful, the complaint goes into the formal process for investigation.

WHO CAN MAKE A COMPLAINT?

Any person who feels offended by the actions or attitude of a police officer or the services provided by the police service can make a complaint.

Any person can make a complaint on behalf of another person. For example, you can make a complaint on behalf of a minor or on behalf of a person who is incapacitated.

HOW DOES A PERSON MAKE A COMPLAINT?

Complaints can be made by telephone, in person, or in writing, to any police officer of the Taber Police Service, to the Public Complaints Director through the Town of Taber Administration office, or directly to the Chief of Police. Members of the police service are on duty 24 hours a day, every day of the week. The Police Act requires that an individual making a complaint must then participate in the investigation by cooperating with investigators. This will consist of providing a statement and relevant information.

WHAT HAPPENS AT AN INTERNAL DISCIPLINARY HEARING?

You (the complainant), the Taber Police Service member, representatives of the Service, and any interested parties have a right to be heard. The hearing may be held in public at a date and location that is convenient to the parties involved.

WHAT HAPPENS IF THE PERSON WHO MAKES THE COMPLAINT IS NOT SATISFIED?

If the person making the complaint is not satisfied with the findings of a concluded investigation, s/he will be advised of their right to appeal the decision. This appeal may be made within 30 days to:

The Secretary
Law Enforcement Review Board
10th Floor, 10365 – 97 Street
Edmonton, Alberta T5J 3W7

WHAT HAPPENS TO A COMPLAINT AFTER IT IS MADE?

All complaints are treated seriously and no matter where your complaint is made, a copy is sent to the Chief of Police. The police officer(s) named also receives a copy of the complaint. When a complaint is received, the Chief of Police will determine if the complaint is about the actions of a police officer or about the services provided by the police. The Chief of Police will then direct the complaint be investigated as per the direction provided in The Alberta Police Act.

While the investigation is being conducted, you will be provided with status reports on a regular basis.

HOW ARE COMPLAINTS INVESTIGATED?

All complaints are investigated by the Taber Police Service or by another agency if the Chief of Police and the Police Commission agree that it would be in the public interest to do so. A member assigned responsibility for the investigation will interview or obtain statements from all involved in the complaint and prepare a report for the Chief of Police.

5. Not share information deemed sensitive or confidential discussed or disclosed at in-camera or closed meetings.
6. Declare all potential or perceived conflicts of interests to the Chair. In the case that the breach is related to the Chair, it must be reported to the Vice-Chair. Conflicts of interest can be but are not limited to:

7. Not use their position to advance their interests or the interests of any person or organization that they are associated with.
8. Not interfere with Taber Police Service's operational decisions, responsibilities, and day to day operations of police services. Commissioners will not attempt to exercise individual authority over the Commission or the Taber Police Service. Commission members have no individual authority over the Chief of Police or other Taber Police Service members.
9. Not speak to the media on behalf of the Commission unless delegated to do so by the Commission Chairperson. The Chair will be the spokesperson for the Commission. Delegation of this authority may be made as required to designated members of the Commission.
 - (a) If speaking to the media in their individual capacity, individual Commissioners must notify the media that they are not speaking as a spokesperson for the Commission.
 - (b) A Commissioner who expresses disagreement with a decision of the Commission shall make it clear that the member is expressing a personal opinion, and not the opinion of the Commission.
10. Any unbecoming conduct, either personal, electronic, professional, or otherwise, from a member of the Police Commission may be grounds for dismissal as evaluated by either Council, as it relates to the Taber Municipal Police Commission Bylaw, or the Police Commission, after assessment by the Chair or designate, upon recommendation to Council.
11. Report themselves or a colleague of the Commission if they have breached their Oath of Office or Code of Conduct and Ethics, real or alleged, and shall bring that information forward to the Commission.
12. Withdraw as a member of the Commission for the duration of an investigation or inquiry if their conduct or performance is being investigated by the Commission.
13. For a period of twelve months after leaving the Commission, abide by the ethical standards of conduct listed above, except those related to confidential information which shall apply in perpetuity.

Commission members should not assume that any unethical actions not specifically prohibited in the Taber Municipal Police Commission Code of Conduct and Ethics are therefore tolerated. If in doubt about specific action(s) Commission members are encouraged to seek advice from the Chair or from legal counsel.

I acknowledge that I have read and agree to abide by the Taber Municipal Police Commission Code of Conduct and Ethics.
