DISPOSITION OF REMAINS (WHO MAY CONTROL DISPOSITION)

Sometimes family members cannot agree about how to dispose of a body or cremains. In these cases the regulation states that, in the absence of a court order, the people in the following order of priority can make the decision:

- the personal representative designated in the will of the deceased;
- the spouse of the deceased if the spouse was living with the deceased at the time of death, or a person who had been living with the deceased at the time of death as spouse for a continuous period of a least 2 years;
- an adult child of the deceased;
- a parent of the deceased;
- a guardian of the deceased under the Dependent Adults Act or, if the deceased is a minor, under the Child Welfare Act of the Domestic Relations Act;
- an adult grandchild of the deceased;
- an adult brother or sister of the deceased;
- an adult nephew or niece of the deceased;
- an adult next of kin of the deceased determined on the basis provided by section 8 and 9 of the Intestate Succession Act;
- the Public Trustee;
- an adult person having some relationship with the deceased not based on blood ties or affinity;
- the Minister of Family and Social Services.

NOTE: The Applicant or his/her representative declares that approval has been received for the interment of the person named by the registered owner of the said plot.

RESALE OF INTERMENT SPACE

After the disinterment, the Town of Taber will allow you to resell your interment space on the open market. The Town of Taber (the seller) will buy back the unused interment space from you, if you wish, and will refund 85% of its original purchase price or 35% of the current selling price, whichever is the greater amount.

LEGISLATION

The requirements outlined in the following legislation, although not limited to, must be met to disinter remains:

- Town of Taber Cemetery Bylaw 20-2007
- Town of Taber Monument Regulations
- Alberta Cemeteries Act
- Alberta Cemeteries Act Regulations
- Alberta Funeral Services Act
